

Our September meeting consisted of a detailed financial report and discussion on the financial state of affairs of the parish. For more information, please contact a member of the pastoral council.